Delaware State University's Master of Business Administration Program

Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB)-accredited

Delaware State University's MBA Program is accredited by the prestigious business school accreditation body AACSB International. AACSB accreditation indicates that the program meets high-quality performance criteria in graduate business education on a worldwide basis.

DSU is among less than 30 percent of business schools with this distinctive accreditation status in the United States and among less than 5 percent of the world's business schools that have earned AACSB international accreditation.

The MBA Program in DSU's College of Business is built on a rigorous curriculum based on the quality suggested by the accreditation and taught by qualified faculty.
